Empire Investigations LLC Teams Up with The Echo Foundation to Bring Awareness to the Global Orphan Crisis

CEO Robert Kresson Partners with Public Figure Amy Braido to Support Children in Need

PITTSBURGH, PA

Empire Investigations LLC has announced a new charitable partnership with The Echo Foundation Inc., a 501(c)3 non-profit organization dedicated to providing hope and opportunity to orphaned children around the world. The partnership was formed through a collaboration between Empire Investigations CEO Robert Kresson and Amy Braido, a nationally recognized public figure and inspirational advocate.

Since 1982, Empire Investigations LLC has served clients navigating some of life's most difficult moments — from theft and corporate fraud to domestic concerns and surveillance operations. CEO Robert Kresson, who witnesses desperation and vulnerability daily through his work, has consistently sought ways to give back to the broader community. Partnering with The Echo Foundation is one of the most meaningful expressions of that commitment.

The Echo Foundation was founded in 2008 with a vision to build a self-sustaining ecosystem of ideas, individuals, and organizations united by a mission of hope. Currently, there are over 147 million orphan children in the world. The Foundation's SPIRIT-STRENGTH-SERVE Stack — a series of symbolic healing bracelets inspired by Amy Braido's life verse — supports psycho-social education programs in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. The proceeds from each bracelet purchased go directly toward funding these programs.

“Through SPIRIT-STRENGTH-SERVE, we are extending our heart of hope. Spirit inspires strength, and strength enables us to move forward to serve.”

Amy Braido is an inspirational public figure known for demanding excellence — from herself and those she surrounds herself with. Her partnership with Empire Investigations amplifies both organizations' reach and brings national attention to the growing global orphan crisis.
